LARGE-CAP CORE EQUITY INVESTMENT PROCESS

We begin the investment process by aggregating more than 200 domestic and international economic measures into a proprietary database. We then evaluate the data to identify areas of economic strength and weakness in the economy and U.S. equity markets, and invest in approximately 20 large-cap stocks poised to benefit from economic trends.

* Supplemental information based on Large-Cap Core Equity Composite, gross-of-fees.

Based on 5 years ended 12/31/19.

PORTFOLIO POSITIONING as of 9/30/20

- We have continued to shift away from the defensive portfolio positioning we had in place at the start of the COVID-19 crisis, while seeking to balance opportunity against ongoing medical, political, and economic risks.
- Since late Q1, we have increased exposures to more economically-sensitive areas of the markets, including establishing allocations in the Financials, Industrials, and Energy sectors.
- We have continued to reduce exposure to less economically sensitive sectors, most recently pairing back Consumer Staples exposure.
- While we maintain exposures to sectors benefitting from positive secular trends, like Information Technology and Communication Services, we have increasingly shifted focus toward sectors we expect to benefit from cyclical tailwinds but which have lagged year-to-date.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SECTOR ALLOCATION

The path of economic growth is a key driver of U.S. equity sector performance. The investment team analyzes recurring cyclical trends and identifies the characteristics particular to the current economic cycle. Portfolios are typically invested in four to six large-cap U.S. sectors at any one time based on our macroeconomic outlook, but may be invested in more or fewer sectors as conditions warrant.

RANGE OF RETURNS BY SECTOR, CAPITALIZATION, AND STYLE*

Owning the right sectors at the right time and avoiding those not in their ideal economic environment offers significantly more opportunity for outperformance, in our view, than allocating to the right equity style or market capitalization range.

WestEnd actively positions client portfolios in more economically sensitive sectors when it expects strong growth, and transitions to less economically sensitive sectors as growth expectations wane.

* Sector performance is represented by sectors of the S&P 500® Index. "Large Cap" is represented by the S&P 500® Index. "Small Cap" is represented by the Russell 2000® Index. "Growth" is represented by the Russell 1000® Growth Index. "Value" is represented by the Russell 1000® Value Index. Data for 2016 excludes Real Estate as a stand-alone sector, which was included in Financials until September 16, 2016. Data for 2018 replaces the Telecommunication Services Sector with the new Communication Services Sector after September 21, 2018, using geometrically-linked total returns to produce a single full-year return, and treats the linked returns as a single sector, due to changes in GICS sector classifications and index rebalancing that occurred as of market close on September 21, 2018.

WestEnd Advisors' Large-Cap Core Equity Composite is invested solely in U.S. Equity securities and/or high-grade money market instruments. Returns are achieved without the use of options, derivatives, or leverage of any kind. Results are calculated daily using the aggregate method, use trade date valuations, and include cash as well as the reinvestment of dividends, interest income, and other earnings, if applicable. The Composite excludes broadly distributed fund accounts. Prior to January 1, 2017, the Composite minimum was $1,000,000 and excluded taxable accounts.

Composite performance results and the percentage of firm assets from December 31, 1995 to December 31, 2002 were realized under WestEnd Advisors' predecessor firm Providence Capital Management, Inc. in the Large-Cap Core Equity Composite. The Large-Cap Core Equity Composite creation and inception date is December 31, 1995.

The S&P 500[®] is used for comparative purposes only. The S&P 500[®], our primary benchmark, includes approximately 500 stocks and is a common measure of the performance of the overall U.S. stock market. The S&P 500[®] Index measures the performance of 500 leading companies in the U.S.

economy. The S&P 500[®] Index focuses on the large-cap segment of the market, with approximately 75% coverage of U.S. equities. The S&P 500[®] Index is designed to be an indicator of U.S. equities and is meant to reflect the risk/return characteristics of the large-cap universe. The S&P 500[®] Index is a market capitalization-weighted index - each stock's weight in the index is proportionate to its market capitalization. Benchmark returns are not covered by the report of independent verifiers.

The dispersion of annual returns is measured by the standard deviation of the asset-weighted portfolio returns included in the composite for the full year. Dispersion is calculated based on gross returns and is not shown when there are five or fewer portfolios, as the calculation is not statistically meaningful. The 3-year ex post standard deviation is calculated based upon gross returns.
